

OPPORTUNITY: STATE CAMPAIGN MANAGER

A growing nonpartisan nonprofit working to modernize U.S. democratic institutions against polarization is seeking a half-time consultant to help lead an issue campaign related to impartiality in election administration.

Election Reformers Network (ERN) is a nonpartisan 501c3 advocacy organization founded in 2017 by election experts with extensive reform experience in the U.S. and overseas. ERN actively supports systemic reforms such as impartial election administration, electoral college reform, and independent redistricting.

POSITION SUMMARY

The specialist will assist our Vice President of Programs in building and maintaining relationships with state-level stakeholders. Key responsibilities will include:

- Self-directed communication and coalition-building with election officials, nonprofit organizations, and other actors from across the ideological spectrum;
- Tracking and maintaining relationships across states;
- Clearly communicating and distilling complicated information to interested audiences;
- Scheduling remote conference calls and video calls across multiple time zones;
- Providing input on ERN reports, op-eds and other publications.

This role offers a great opportunity to be a part of the solution to the country's pressing democracy challenges. ERN is committed to developing election solutions that can gain support from a wide range of political perspectives; for that reason it is essential that the candidate be open-minded, non-dogmatic, and skilled at understanding and working with a wide range of people and perspectives.

The specialist will work remotely, most likely on a half-time basis, though the timeframe is open to discussion. The specialist will report to the Executive Director (based in Newton, MA) and Vice President of Programs (based near Albuquerque, New Mexico).

EXPERIENCE, AND SKILLS REQUIRED:

- Minimum qualifications:
  - Reform-related experience in one or more of the following states: Alaska, Arizona, Colorado, Maine, Michigan, Missouri, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Utah, and/or Washington State
  - Bachelor's degree in public policy, political science, or a related field (Master's or Law degree preferred)
- The ideal candidate will have at least 8-10 years of experience in one or a combination of the following areas:
  - Running a trade or nonprofit association;
  - Working with state legislators in any capacity;
  - Direct responsibility for local, state, or federal issue campaigns
- Demonstrated ability to work in a cross-partisan manner;
- Passion for strengthening American democracy, and a commensurate ability to understand different political perspectives and work toward broadly supported solutions;
- Flexibility and initiative to work both independently and as part of a team;
- High level of proficiency with cloud-based file sharing;
- Ability to understand and communicate complicated issues, particularly pertaining to election administration.

Interested candidates should submit cover letter and resume by email to info@electionreformers.org. No calls please.

Election Reformers Network is committed to a diverse workplace, seeking voices and expertise from people from across the political spectrum.
